

ALED LLYWELYN - COMMERCIAL & EDITORIAL PHOTOGRAPHY

As we all come to terms with an unprecedented health risk in COVID-19 (Coronavirus) understandably there is heightened concern everywhere. I would like to assure you that I will continue to work in a safe manner and in line with government advice.

As events continue to unfold and advice continues to change I'm being as flexible as possible with bookings and schedules.

Below is a brief outline of how I am now working. If you have any additional safe working practices you feel I can add to ensure the safety and confidence of you and your clients please feel free to let me know so that I can update my policy accordingly.

Covid-19 Health & Safety Policy

- Client meetings by video/telephone only
- Adhere to Government advice on safe working
- Keep a safe distance, a minimum of 2 metres
- On arrival and departure at a location, wash hands or use sanitiser gel
- No hand shaking and to avoid all personal contact
- I will ask people not to touch the camera, or any of the equipment
- Avoid touching surfaces or any items, unless absolutely necessary
- Use PPE when required to do so
- Wear mask & gloves on shoots with people indoors
- Stop work and self-isolate immediately if any symptoms appear
- Covid-19 Risk Assessment & Method Statement required
- Adhere to the site's Health & Safety Policy's
- Make anyone involved in the photography aware of all the above.

This policy will be updated as UK and Welsh Government guidance changes
